

Week 5: Online Learning

GAME DESIGN 1&2

Mrs. Burkert

Period: 1,2,3

WEEK 5 TOPIC: Ready Player One

Congratulations you have now completed the entire book Ready Player One. Celebrate with a bowl of popcorn and NOW you can watch the movie. (If you don't have access to the movie, watch clips on YouTube and read reviews)

I would love to hear your thoughts on how well or not so well they adapted the movie from the book. Which did you like better? There is a chat session in Schoology for your comments.

Have a great summer, and be ready to share any cool games you played this summer when we return!

Remember to get outside at least an equal amount of time you spend gaming, it will refresh you and give you new inspirations!
